

CODE: FIR 9

FIRE ALARM LEGISLATION

This one day course is ideally suited to any responsible person in charge of a building – including landlords and letting agents – and all members of the security systems industry who wish to have a better understanding and working knowledge of current legislation.

COURSE CONTENT

- ▶ Introduction to fire legislation, industry standards and bodies
- ▶ An understanding of fire classifications
- ▶ The Regulatory Reform Order: 2005 and its implications
- ▶ Classifications of fire alarm systems
- ▶ Fire risk assessment and fire management plans
- ▶ Roles of the responsible person and Fire Officer
- ▶ Fire detection and min/max sound levels
- ▶ Requirements for routine maintenance and documentation
- ▶ Management of false alarms
- ▶ Associated systems and equipment - extinguishers, sprinklers, emergency lighting

“The content was extremely helpful.”

i2 SECURITY DELEGATE

BTEC
ADVANCED AWARD

COURSE DATES

2015

FEBRUARY	5
JUNE	4
JULY	23
OCTOBER	8
DECEMBER	10

2016

JANUARY	28
MARCH	17

COURSE COST, DURATION AND AWARD

£195.00 + VAT

Duration: 1 day

BTEC Diploma Points: 1

Course fee includes
BTEC level 3 certificate

You will learn to keep yourself and your organisation within the vitally important and ever-changing boundaries of the fire regulations.

53

FIRE ALARM COURSES